Enjoy the Signature Difference

Our business is exemplary food service. And if you've eaten many meals at business conferences, camps or in school dining rooms, you know there can be huge differences in both the "food" and "service" you receive.

Signature Services has provided high-quality food services for more than 80 years. We specialize in providing food and services for camping, conference centers and educational venues as well as consulting with you as to your specific needs. We offer the finest, freshest and widest selection of foods and menus along with a friendly, informed and caring staff. We can comfortably provide service for any school, camp or conference center, regardless of its type or size.

We Are Nutrition Specialists

Our goal is to encourage and support the education of our children by providing them with healthy, appealing food that meets their nutritional needs and encourages healthy eating habits. Along with our computer meal card system, we use the Nutri Kids software to provide a complete nutritional analysis of all menu items we serve.

We Develop Professionals

The question we're asked most frequently is, "Where do you find such exceptional people?" That's one of the finest compliments we can receive. Basically, we rely on these three sources to help keep us staffed with people that are not only creative and highly competent in the culinary field but also excel in "people skills."

An Internship Program

With our professionally designed internship program many college students living here and abroad receive college credit while working for us. Each year we hire dietetic and nutrition graduates and interns from the best universities. Our staff is frequently asked to participate as guests lecturers at many of these schools which gives us a close up look at potential candidates. Professors often recommend our programs to their students, and thus we are able to maintain an active list of highly skilled prospective employees.

We Serve Camps & Conference Centers

We understand the importance of making a good impression. Food doesn't have to be expensive to look expensive. Through the skillful use of food, decorations, entertainment and overall professional presentation, we can help you communicate a precise message through your food service. All you have to do is enjoy yourself. We do the rest. Food should be a positive, fulfilling part of a camp or conference center visit. Our superior dining services will make your camping or conference experience even more memorable and enjoyable. Our creativity and experience makes "camp food" worth writing home about. Let us show you how "camp food" can truly enrich the camping experience. With more than 25 years of experience serving camps, we truly understand the diverse appetites of campers in all age groups. With proper design and management, the dining hall can be your social and entertainment center while maintaining its primary function of providing appetizing and nutritious meals.

Camps &
Conference Centers

HIRE PROFESSIONALS Let us take care of the food so you can take care of the hectic business of running a busy camp with all the demands of programming, staffing, and funding. We know what you do as many of our staff serve on camp association boards, volunteer their time at training seminars, and assist camp directors solve their day to day issues.
